

Product Data Sheet

DB60 - Standard Software Versions

P91

Back-Weighing Controller Version

Gross weight display changes to zero when start is initiated, when target weight is reached, the display will revert to new gross figure.

Full printing facility available as per P150 version

P106

Autographic Batch Recording Version

- Manual tare input
- External or automatic tare input

Printing comprises of following data

- Date and time of batch
- Sequential batch number
- Pre-set docket / batch number
- Plant / location number
- Each unit identified by product
- Up to 6 material names identified
- Up to 6 batch weights recorded
- Total batch weight recorded
- Re-settable trip totals
- Running totals

P90

100 Batch Recipe Controller Version

This unit is designed to be used in conjunction with the DB60 - P150 automatic batching software. This version can store up to 100 batch recipes incorporating up to six different materials.

From experience Norstrom know that no two applications for our products are the same. Norstrom are therefore happy to add special functions or tailor our products and systems to meet customers individual needs.

P150

Automatic Batching Version

Includes all features on P106 plus the following features

- Auto / manual select
- Print out in both auto and manual
- Prints both target and achieved weights
- Six operator adjustable set points
- Automatic tare
- Automatic in-flight compensation
- Two stage / dribble feed
- External start fill input
- External or auto discharge input
- Hopper empty output
- Weigh complete output
- Two stage discharge output

P177

Flowmeter Controller Version

- Up to four set points
- Automatic in-flight compensation
- Accepts up to four different meter pulse rates
- Empty fill line alarm indication
- Meter no pulse alarm indication
- Full printing capability

For further information call + 44 (0) 1942722677

or

Visit our web site www.norstrom.co.uk